5. Share responsibilities
6. Work as a team
7. Build trust
8. Achieve a common goal

Part 2. Students discuss the questions.

Reading activity

Part 1. Students read the text and underline all the collocations they find.

When our marketing team started a new project, it took time to build trust and share responsibilities. At first, everyone had their own ideas and nobody wanted to value different opinions.

Slowly, we learned to work as a team and support each other when deadlines got tough. Each person began to make a contribution, whether it was designing, writing, or presenting.

There were a few arguments, but we managed to resolve conflicts by talking openly and listening carefully. In the end, we achieved a common goal and finished the campaign successfully.

The best part wasn't just the result, it was seeing how much calmer and happier everyone felt when the pressure finally lifted.

Part 2. Students answer the questions based on the text.

Answer key:

1. Everyone wanted their own way; they didn't value different opinions.
2. By communicating openly and helping each other.
3. By talking honestly and listening carefully.
4. Open-ended, personal reflection.

Speaking

Part 1. Students read each situation and discuss what they would do or say. Encourage students to use at least one collocation in each response.

Part 2. Students rank the teamwork values from 1 (most important) to 8 (least important) and discuss the questions.

Part 3. Students discuss the questions.

Reflection

Students discuss the questions.

Wrap-up task (optional homework)

Students write about a team experience that taught them something.

Encourage students to include at least five collocations from today's lesson.

They could include:

- What the goal was
- What went well or badly
- How people communicated
- What they learnt about teamwork
