Part 1. Students share the first thing that comes to mind when they look at each of the words.

Part 2. Students choose one option in each pair and give a reason or example.

Part 3. Students read the statements and say which ones feel true for them and why.

Part 4. Students complete the sentences in a way that feels natural for them.

Part 5. Students discuss the questions.

Part 6. Students rank the five things that matter most to them when it comes to feeling at home.

Part 7. Students discuss what they would do in each situation.

Part 8. Students read the viewpoints, decide which one they agree with more and explain their reasoning.

Part 9. Students say whether they agree, disagree, or partly agree with each statement.

Part 10. Using the prompts, students describe the place where they feel most at home.

Reflection

Students complete the sentences in their own words.
