READING ACTIVITY

Part 1. Read this dialogue between two travellers who recently visited Italy.

Emma: Rome set the bar high from day one — the Colosseum was in a league of its own.

Jake: Agreed. St Peter's was huge, but Florence ticked all the boxes for me — that dome is unreal up close.

Emma: Venice was a change of pace. Drifting along the Grand Canal felt timeless.

Jake: And you can't go wrong with a gelato stop every afternoon. Pure happiness.

Emma: Best surprise? The Amalfi bus ride — hair-raising bends, but the views were worth every step we climbed afterwards.

Jake: Same here. Then Pompeii made history feel real — streets, houses, everything.

Emma: Finishing in the Dolomites was perfect. Big sky, crisp air — completely different side of Italy.

Jake: Italy's one of those places I'd happily loop back to — north to south, start to finish.

Part 2. Answer the questions below based on the dialogue.

1. Which landmarks impressed Emma and Jake in Rome and Florence?
2. How did Emma describe the Venice experience?
3. What everyday treat does Jake recommend, and when?
4. Why does Emma say the Amalfi experience was "worth every step"?
5. What two places made history and nature stand out for them at the end?

Part 3. Match the expression to its meaning.

In a league of its own	Set the bar high	Ticked all the boxes
You can't go wrong with...	Worth every step

1. _____ A reliable, always-good choice
2. _____ Reached a very high standard from the start
3. _____ Effort was justified by the result
4. _____ So good/unique it stands above the rest
5. _____ Met all your needs or expectations

Part 4. Discuss the following questions.

1. Tell us about a place that was in a league of its own.
2. A trip that set the bar high from day one – what happened?
3. A city or tour that ticked all the boxes – why?
4. A food or activity you can't go wrong with while travelling.
5. A viewpoint or hike that was worth every step.
