

Teacher's Guide

Curiosity & Lifelong Learning – Upper-intermediate (B2-C1)

Canva Presentation Link: 🌐 Curiosity & Lifelong Learning

Editable Presentation Link: 🌐 Curiosity & Lifelong Learning

Editable Worksheet Link: 🌐 Student Worksheet: Curiosity & Lifelong Learning

Warm-up discussion

Part 1. Students choose one from each pair and explain why.

Part 2. Students complete the internet search prompts with their own ideas, then discuss the questions.

Vocabulary & speaking

Part 1. Students match the collocations.

Answer key:

1. D
2. E
3. B
4. C
5. A

Part 2. Students complete the sentences with their own ideas.

Part 3. Students complete each phrase by filling in the gaps, then discuss what they think each phrase means.

Curiosity killed the cat – Being too curious or trying to find out too much can get you into trouble.

You learn something new every day – There's always something unexpected to discover or understand, even in ordinary life.

Don't judge a book by its cover – You shouldn't form an opinion about someone or something based only on appearance.

Knowledge is power – Having information or understanding gives you control, confidence, or an advantage.

Better safe than sorry – It's wiser to be cautious and avoid risk than to regret not being careful later.

Part 4. Students discuss the questions using the target phrases.

Part 5. Students discuss the questions.

Part 6. Students complete the sentences with their own ideas.

Part 7. Students read each statement and say if they agree, disagree, or partly agree and explain why.

Reflection

Students discuss the questions.